At The MOTION PICTURE THEATRES

PASTIME PRESENTING PORTLAND SOCIETY FEATURE TODAY

A feature made in Portland with Portland society folk as the principals will be the attraction at the Pastime today. Helen Ladd has the principal role with Ford Tarpley as the Vampire. This picture created a big sensation in Portland when it was run for one whole week at the Majestic theater and Manager James of the Majestic is going to give it a return showing for three days week after next.

In bringing this feature to Pendleton Manager Matlock does so at the urgent request of numbers of Pendleton people who wished to see Portland elite in pictures.

The combined fortunes to the cast in Veda the Vampire exceed the sum of $5,000,000 and it must be borne in mind that it is purely an amateur picture. Adults 15c, children 5c.

Alta Theater Thursday Only.

Practically over night a new star has appeared in the motion picture firmament. He is Eugene Strong whose work as Robert Clayton, the artist in "The Crimson Stain Myster," the sixteen episode super-serial photoplay presented by Consolidated Film Corporation, has attracted the attention of the critics.

Though Mr. Armstrong's theatrical career extends over a period of years, he has never had the opportunity for the real work that he has in this remarkable serial. His interpretation of the young artist who is a victim of the wiles of Vanya Tosca, the vampire, is little short of remarkable. It was in the first episode that the critics realized that here was a new star and their judgment has been further justified by Mr. Strong's consistent work throughout the entire serial.

Consolidated Film Corporation are sanguine that in Eugene Strong they have an actor who is an artist to his finger tips.

Mr. Strong laid the foundation of his stage career in stock in the west where he spent his first six years as an actor. Following that, for two years he played the leading role in "The Virginian." Later he supported Catherine Calvert in the Paul Armstrong sketch, "To Save One Girl," on a forty weeks vaudeville tour. His first big success in motion pictures was as the juvenile in "The Man Inside."

ALTA THEATRE, OCTOBER 19

USE "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS WHEN CONSTIPATED

WHEN BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK, FOR SOUR STOMACH, BAD BREATH, BAD COLDS.

Get a 10-cent box.

Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, a bad cold are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

Mr. Strong easily comes up to the requirements demanded for the modern screen idol, i. e., he is tall, handsome, athletic and youthful. There is not any doubt in the minds of the officers of the Consolidated Film Corporation that "The Crimson Stain Mystery" will win for Mr. Strong a following of admirers second to none.

"The Way of Patience"

This picture is very pleasing, both from the standpoint of story and of production. The Quaker characters and settings give distinction to the play, which is effectively presented. It is entertaining and wholesome and will be greatly enjoyed by the average audience.

Nell Craig has the leading role, the Quaker girl who runs away from home to adventures in the city. Ernest Maupin as her father is very good as a stern old Quaker. Darwin Karr is an entirely satisfactory hero, while Hugh Thompson as an artist plays the villain well.

The settings are interesting, the photography excellent.

The story—Patience Worth, a Quaker girl, while on an errand to the village store purchases a necklace of beads to the genuine horror of several women of the Quaker community who are present. When she arrives home, her father reproves her severely, and, since the women have reported her action, she is also reprimanded in meeting and as a result of her disgrace, she retires and goes to the city.

An accidental meeting with an artist's model results in an appointment to pose for Amos Thayer, an artist. Patience soon substitutes modern styles for her Quaker garb, and becomes one of a little bohemian set. Both Thayer and Emerson Leonard, the latter an author, fall in love with the girl. She believes that she loves the artist, but, alarmed by his unconventional ideas of love, she marries the other man. Then she runs away from him and returns to her father. But when Leonard follows her to her home, she realizes that she loved the man she married and is glad to go back to the city with him.

Keep Your Eye on Bond Bros.

A large crew is now busy sorting, tagging, pricing and arranging the big $53,000 salvage stock from our late fire.

It will be thrown on the market to the people of Pendleton and Umatilla county within a few days.

In the meantime arrange your affairs so you can drop everything and be here the hour it opens, and Watch for the date.
